

CODY ATHLETES
DEDICATE ARENABig Stadium at Deming
Cantonment Is Scene of Boxing Bouts.

Camp Cody, Deming, N. M., Nov. 10. Camp Cody witnessed the dedication of the spacious new athletic stadium Saturday afternoon, which was the excuse for an athletic card, the array of which boasts of the cream of the athletic talent of the camp.

Brig. Gen. Frank C. Maudslai, his staff, the various officer personnel of the camp and their wives turned out for the occasion—a special section of the stadium being reserved. It is the first step to place Cody foremost among the other cantonment camps in the physical training department.

Maj. Sheldon in Charge. Maj. Palmer Sheldon, of the 25th brigade depot, is the master of ceremonies, being in charge of the military end of athletics in Camp Cody. Next in line, in official authority is J. N. Morehouse, formerly in charge of the physical education department at the University of Colorado and who has been appointed by the war department to supervise athletics at the camp.

There is wrestling, boxing, singing and tumbling, with the boxing being the predominant feature of the program.

Well Known Athletes. Some of the best known athletes in the middle west are on the card for the afternoon. No lesser personages than the two Burns boys, sons of the famous Martine (Farmer) Burns, are on the program. Then there are such well known boxers as Ben Shumaker, Guy Buckles, Jack Racer, Al Young and Buck Timmerly. George Cummings, former eastern lightweight champion, but now a lightweight, also made his appearance.

All of the boxing bouts are merely exhibitions—this being only a preliminary, so to speak, to what the appetites of the lovers of stiff fights.

No Admission Charged. There was no admission fee charged for the entertainment.

Farther, of the 15th field artillery, was referee for all the bouts for the afternoon.

Will Have Music. An added attraction of the afternoon was the appearance of a 150 piece band, made up of several of the different regimental bands. There were also several selections by the "Unique Trio," a quartet composed of former Orpheum singers.

JOSEPH TINKER
MAKES THEM TALK

Joe Tinker seems to be the wit of the camp of the American association—a sort of man you see as often as you see a man. A week or so ago he was assigned to be head up with what president Hickey has termed the "misconducts." Thus, he is said to be leaning toward the right faction. Chances are the doctored know just where he stands because he doesn't know where he will stand. Chances are, too, that he will stand where he stands. Chances are, too, that he will stand where he stands. Chances are, too, that he will stand where he stands.

ABILENE WANTS TO ENTER THE TEXAS

Nothing was done with regard to determination of the circuit for 1918 at the recent meeting of the Texas league, the matter being postponed until December 1, when another meeting will be held in Houston. An application from Abilene was received for a franchise in case of a vacancy. While Abilene was re-elected president of the league and delegated with voting power for the league at the National association convention in Louisville. He asked that all clubs be represented at this meeting and was assured that each would send a delegate.

FIELDER LEWIS IS NOW IN NAVY

Outfielder Duffy Lewis of the Red Sox, who walked as a navy recruit, has been assigned to office work at Mare Island navy yard, near San Francisco. He didn't have to report for duty until the close of the Pacific Coast league season and he didn't miss any games of the last struggling club since that time. The ordinary fan may not be up on navy minutiae and therefore is dumb as to what a young man like Lewis does in a navy officer's uniform. Lewis is an ex-West Point center, who did excellent work in days gone by for the Red Sox.

INFANTRY TEAM

Reports emanating from the 54th infantry camp state that the team will be fully 50 percent stronger than when it faced the Tigers last week at the stadium. The personnel of the team includes five commissioned officers who were stars of college teams and who comprise the backbone of the eleven. Lieutenants Paine, Schudder, Wells and Litley are all experienced men, while Lieut. Stansbury is an ex-West Point center, who did excellent work in days gone by for the Red Sox.

not scheduled a game for this Sunday and will enjoy a brief lay-off. Several of the fastest players of the team were injured in a game last Sunday at the stadium and it was thought advisable to give the members a brief vacation.

ASSOCIATION IS READY. Chicago, Ill., Nov. 10.—The American association is ready to place teams in Indianapolis, Louisville and Toledo if these clubs decide to withdraw and merge with certain clubs of the international league, president Hickey, of the American association said Friday. Negotiations have been closed with men with the necessary capital, he said. George Tebeau, who only recently sold the Kansas city club, said he would attend the association meeting in Louisville next Monday prepared to accept a franchise in any of the three cities.

ATHLETES MAKE SOME GOOD MARKS

In the intermediate gymnastic tests held in the Y. M. C. A. regular class William Deegan again took first honors with an average mark of 94.
